

Absence of Criminal Record

In determining whether an individual is eligible to participate as an inspector or contractor and work with the SC Safe Home Program, the Director or his designee must, among other things, consider whether the individual has been convicted of, or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, a crime involving moral turpitude, has violated any regulation promulgated by the department, or has willfully deceived or dealt unjustly with the citizens of this State.

Every applicant participating as a wind inspector or contractor and working with the SC Safe Home Program must provide a copy of his criminal history record to the Director when applying for certification.

The Director must also consider whether the individual has had a license or certification, or its equivalent, denied, suspended, or revoked in this state or another state, province, district, or territory.

As a certified contractor or wind inspector actively working with The SC Safe Home Program, I, _____ (print name), hereby certify that I am trustworthy and have not been convicted, or pleaded guilty or nolo contendere to, a crime involving moral turpitude.
